HOW DO THE ROOT PRODUCTS WORK

Restoring the body's self-regulating capacity

ROOT products do not treat symptoms. The intention of ROOT products is to focus on the causes that lead to disturbed self-regulation in the body and to restore the body's optimal function.

The human organism is negatively affected in its natural regulation by a multitude of toxins in the environment (chemical substances, glyphosates, heavy metals, etc.) as well as those arising internally due to psycho-emotional stress. This may lead to overacidification and inflammatory processes within the body.

Every body is and reacts uniquely, that is why, when out of balance, the systems of the human body are affected quite individually. By "system" we mean the neurological system, emotional system, immune system, reproductive system, hormonal system, lymphatic system, nervous system, cardiovascular system, etc. That is why, even when exposed to the same environment, each person's body may show different reactions and possible health challenges. ROOT products counteract the toxicity in the body and provide it with effective nutrients to reharmonize and regenerate the different bodily systems.

This process of regeneration is work for the body. Hence, there is a possibility of temporary physical reactions when people start using the products. Temporary detox symptoms such as headaches, dizziness, nausea, constipation or diarrhea may occur. However, this is no need to worry. The important thing is to monitor your physical sensations and listen to your intuition and take responsibility for yourself. It is generally recommended to drink enough "good water" and to supply the body with sufficient valuable minerals.

Important: ROOT products are no drugs!

They do not treat symptoms. The products support the body's natural regenerating abilities and help the system to regain its natural balance. If you are taking prescribed medication or have serious health challenges, please consult a doctor or health practitioner before using.

Clean Slate

Take directly from the dropper in the mouth or in a glass of water.

Start with 1 to 2 drops daily.

Increase slowly by 1 drop daily until you reach 10 drops twice daily.

Clean Slate is ROOT's flagship product, the initial product with which the company first entered the market. It is so effective that in some countries we are not even permitted to say why, as everything we would share would be interpreted as so-called health claims, which are forbidden in the EU, e.g.

Clean Slate is obtained through a proprietary process whose patent-pending formulation allows for the extraction of a bioavailable silica from nature's most potent volcanic mineral. In addition, trace elements and vitamin C are added. As a result, a revolutionary Silicon Dioxide is created, which has an increased bioavailability and supports a gentle and systemic passive cleansing of the body, thus improving the regenerative capacity of the body.

Together with Zero-In and Restore, Clean Slate forms what we call the TRINITY. All three products work synergistically to help us detox body, mind and spirit.

The synergy of the ingredients in Zero-In stimulate the body's production of serotonin and dopamine, supporting your focus on the tasks ahead. It may reduce brain fog and increase mental clarity. As Zero-In is an adaptogenic, it also supports good sleep during the night.

WHAT ELSE IS IMPORTANT TO KNOW?

In this section we have collected questions frequently asked about the intake of the root products. If you have questions that you find are not answered here, don't hesitate to ask your ROOT contact or take your question to any of the We4You social media groups.

Clean Slate & Medication:

The intake of Clean Slate does NOT NEGATIVELY impact your pharmaceutical medication nor the intake of food supplements. Its principle is similar to a magnet. Medication and supplements have a different energy and therefore are not bound.

However, it is recommended to take Clean Slate 1-2 hours apart from medications.

Exception:

Chemotherapy drugs are an exception. Clean Slate may bind components of a chemotherapy. That is why it is advised to stop taking Clean Slate on the day of a chemotherapy treatment.

Clean Slate helps optimizing cellular function, which can alter the absorption of nutrients and medications. People taking prescription medications are advised to work with their health practitioner to monitor parameters and adjust medication if required.

Clean Slate & Pregnancy, Lactation, Babies

There are basically no age limits for taking Clean Slate. Babies are being exposed to environmental toxins and heavy metals already with the conception in the womb. After birth, they are often vaccinated very early in their young lives, generating further exposure to vaccines. Therefore, it may be recommended to start early to gently eradicate toxins and heavy metals from the body.

Referring to LEGAL terms:

Clean Slate is not recommended to pregnant women, infants and nursing mothers.

It is advised that mothers and parents perform their own research on the specific topic and on ROOT in order to make an informed and responsible decision on behalf of their baby.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AND THEIR ANSWERS

Addiction? Duration of use?

The use of ROOT products strengthens physical and mental well-being. There is no risk to become dependent or addicted.

Every human is exposed to harmful environmental substances, radiation as well as chemical, physical and psychological stress daily. Therefore a long-term use of Clean Slate is recommended.

Zero-In & Psyche / Emotions

Zero-In supports the body's own production of dopamine and serotonin, and thus the natural cellular communication.

This may cause past trauma or deep-seated emotional memories to surface and thus be perceived more clearly.

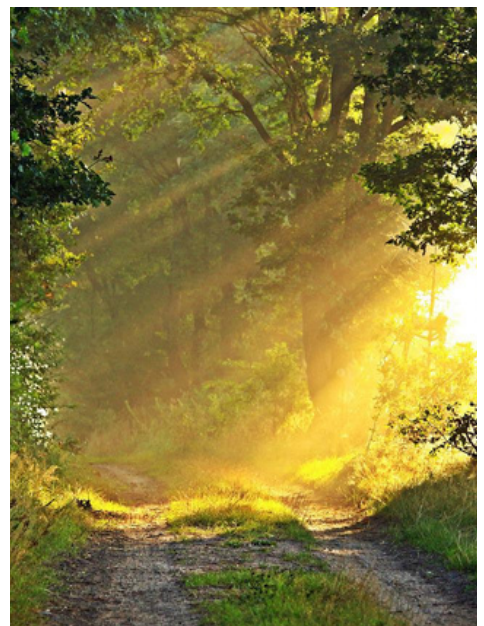

Sensitive individuals are recommended to start with a low dose of e.g. 1/2 to 1 capsule.

In case of an initial response (feeling of restlessness, racing heart, anxiety, tension, guilt, sadness, memory problems, loss of reality, strong feeling of anger, etc.) it is recommended to reduce the dosage or stop using until the condition improves. At the same time, it is recommended to continue detoxifying the body.

Clean Slate / Zero-In & Consciousness

We know from experience that the combined intake of Clean Slate & Zero-In can cause customers to experience sensations they have never felt before (keyword pineal gland). It is important to consciously observe this process. Please listen to your body and trust it -- and the process.

Cleaning the body on a cellular level, new neuronal connections are formed, which leads to improved communication between the cells. You are basically being rewired ... in a good way!

THOUGHTS ON YOUR DETOX EXPERIENCE

Open the door to a new you!

We are all completely unique beings. Each one of us is different in mind, body, spirit, which means we differ in our physical, mental, emotional, spiritual make-up. What a joy! While we share the DNA with the leaf on the next tree, as Dr. Rahm so aptly puts it, this unique make-up of each of us means that the detox experience cannot be generalized. Just imagine that each cell in your body carries the information of everything that has ever happened to you and the ancestral lineage you belong to. Does it then surprise you that every one of us has a totally unique detox experience. We know that, literally, no two stories are alike! Also, keep in mind that your body may have been out of balance for years or even decades. Thus, please yourself and your body the time to recover and regenerate.

Experience has shown that for every decade of life, the body requires at least one month to cleanse itself, which is why we recommend to take Clean Slate for the number of months you are decades old. In truth, we ALL have been taking it for years and rarely miss a dosage, simply because we are exposed to so many environmental challenges at this time. And while we detox at the physical level, we also detox mentally and spiritually, and we watch each other change in the process. We know from experience that Clean Slate and its magical friends have a much deeper effect on the human than just the physical. They open the heart and reconnect us with our true essence, which is why you find so many heart-centered people in our community ... people, who launch charity projects and give freely and generously to help those in need. We all walk the path of taking responsibility for our health every single day. Come join us!
